KIMBERLY, WI, May 2009 – The 21st annual Paperfest celebration at Sunset Park in Kimberly kicks off on Thursday, July 16, with Appleton music artist CORY CHISEL and THE WANDERING SONS. Cory Chisel is a truly awesome entertainer and musician. His unique sound is heartfelt and soulful and brilliantly combines jazz, soul and rock n'roll. The audience is captivated by his talent, energy and stage presence. The Wandering Sons and Cory Chisel complement each other and provide a unique music package that's guaranteed to wow any crowd. Mark your calendar for July 16th; you'll want to experience CORY CHISEL and THE WANDERING SONS in concert.

This year Paperfest is featuring all local and regional musicians on five stages, with enough variety to satisfy nearly any musical palette. In addition to CORY CHISEL and THE WANDERING SONS, this year's line up includes Vic Ferrari, Boogie & the YoYoz, Sonic Circus -Wisconsin Area Music Industry COVER BAND of the YEAR Award winner, Half Empty, Naughty Monkey, Grand Union, 4th Floor (the 2008 Battle of the Bands Champion), Car Full of Midgets, Water Funk, Darrell Hase and Milwaukee country band Chasin' Mason. The attached entertainment schedule provides a complete list of artists and performance times for each stage.

A Battle of the Bands featuring 18 bands will again be offered this year, providing a venue for local bands to compete on Saturday, July 18, with finals on Sunday, July 19.

Paperfest, run entirely by volunteers, is a free admission, family-oriented festival that raises money for nonprofit and civic organizations in the Fox Valley. Spanning four days, it offers fun for all ages through games, sports, music and food.

Each year, this event draws over 20,000 people from all over the Fox Cities region and beyond. To-date, over $500,000 has been returned to civic and nonprofit organizations in the community through sponsorship and volunteer hours.
